Greetings from the President

The world we inhabit has become increasingly complex, fluid and uncertain. Indeed, as the Global Financial Crisis of 2008 bluntly revealed, failure to adapt to changing economic and social conditions invariably results in decline. In this environment, Nagoya University, as a centre of science and knowledge, regards it a fundamental mission to educate its students to be rational and creative global human resources, individuals who are able to meet the needs of society's constantly shifting demands.

Naturally, the University considers the internationalisation of education to be indispensable to the nurturing of globally-minded citizens. In line with Government policy, Nagoya University has set the ambitious target of increasing its intake of international students to 3,000 by 2020. Moreover, as a Ministry of Education-designated "Top Global University", we have taken a national lead in implementing a range of internationalisation projects that will fundamentally alter traditional practices in Japanese higher education.

Nagoya University has long been an undisputed leader in Japan's higher education sector, a fact confirmed by its appointment in 2018 as a "Designated National University", one of only six such institutions in the country. Indeed, six Nobel Prizes serve to demonstrate Nagoya University's unrivalled expertise in cultivating world-class researchers; this and other achievements may be attributed to the free and vibrant academic culture that has come to define this University, and one that we wish to share with you.

Established in 1996, NUPACE, the Nagoya University Program for Academic Exchange, constitutes both a frontrunner and intrinsic element of our continued endeavour to internationalise. As is evident in this brochure, the programme has accrued a wealth of experience in its twenty-three years of operation, and evolved into a highly reputable student exchange undertaking, both domestically and internationally. NUPACE will afford you the opportunity to simultaneously enjoy a quality academic curriculum, discover Japan and, most importantly, to nurture a fundamentally international approach to life.

Seiichi Matsuo, D. Med.,
President of Nagoya University

Nagoya – the City and the University

The Chubu region, located in the heart of Japan, has played a central role in this nation's history and has for long prospered under a flourishing culture and economy. The area is particularly renowned as the home of Oda Nobunaga, Toyotomi Hideyoshi and Tokugawa Ieyasu, the three military leaders who unified Japan over 400 years ago, thus bringing an end to the 'Period of Warring States'. Nagoya Castle, originally built by Tokugawa Ieyasu and famous for the mythological golden dolphins found on its donjon, serves as the landmark of the region. Its castle town, Nagoya, has thrived.

In contemporary Japan, this vibrant metropolis occupies an important political and economical position. Nagoya constitutes the nerve centre of the Chubu Industrial Zone, an amalgamation of both traditional and modern enterprises, notable amongst which is the automobile industry. Nagoya offers the conveniences of any large urban centre, with shops, restaurants and leisure activities to cater to any taste, and with a population of over 2.3 million, is an exciting place to live, work and study.

Although Nagoya University's history can be dated back to 1871, when a medical school and hospital were founded on the site of a local feudal government house, it was in 1939 that the university was formally established as Japan's seventh imperial university. Since 1949, after its re-emergence in the reformed post-war education system, Nagoya University has not only developed as the pre-eminent educational establishment in the Chubu region, it has also flourished as one of the foremost national universities in Japan. The 2018 Academic Ranking of World Universities (ARWU), released by Shanghai Jiao Tong University, placed Nagoya University eighty-third in the world. And, in its Japan University Rankings 2018, THE World University Rankings ranked Nagoya University as the seventh strongest university nation-wide.

Currently, Nagoya University consists of nine undergraduate schools and thirteen graduate schools, three research institutes and eighteen interdepartmental research and education centres. Approximately 16,500 students are enrolled at the university, 2,400 of whom form a lively international community. The teaching, research and administrative staff numbers about 3,900.

In recent years, Nagoya University has become conspicuous amongst national universities through its enhanced level of international competitiveness. This University was selected by the Ministry of Education to be a "Global 30" hub, one of only thirteen institutions nationwide, which, in the period FY2009-2014, were granted a substantial budget to implement broad-ranging internationalisation initiatives. Furthermore, as a consistent recipient of JSPS Global Center of Excellence awards, as well as prominent contributor to Japan's cultivation of Nobel Laureates, Nagoya University has a proven track record of research that performs at the apex of global excellence. As of FY 2014, Japan's Government has designated the University as a Rank A "Top Global University", giving testimony to its calibre as a first-class institution of higher education. And, in 2018, it was appointed a "Designated National University" by the Ministry of Education (MEXT), one of only six such institutions in Japan, the other five comprising The University of Tokyo, Kyoto University, Tohoku University, Tokyo Institute of Technology, and Osaka University.

Whilst fostering an academic tradition of freedom and tolerance, today's Nagoya University is a national leader in the quest to meet the challenges of the 21st century.

Nagoya University Program for Academic Exchange (NUPACE)

The Nagoya University Program for Academic Exchange (NUPACE) offers a unique curriculum consisting of Japanese language instruction, Japan area/intercultural studies, and over 1,000 courses in the student's major field of study taught in English. The programme endeavours to internationalise through education, forge friendships that extend beyond borders, and foster talented individuals capable of contributing positively to the international society of tomorrow.

Eligibility

Overseas students who meet the following conditions are eligible to apply for NUPACE:

1. Students MUST be enrolled in undergraduate or graduate degree programmes at overseas universities that have concluded an academic exchange agreement with Nagoya University. Refer to pp. 27-34.
2. Students MUST have a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 (B) or better on a 4.0 scale, or the equivalent.
3. NUPACE requires exchange students to be proficient in either English OR Japanese.

Unless they attend/have attended universities where English is the language of instruction, non-native English speakers who wish to participate in the NUPACE English-language curriculum should possess a minimum TOEFL (iBT) score of 79, an IELTS overall band score of 6.0, a TOEIC score of 780, CEFR band B2, CET-6 score of 450, or the equivalent.*

*Students studying at universities in Scandinavia, Germany, Austria, Hong Kong, Singapore, or at Bilkent University in Turkey are exempt from providing proof of their English language ability. The same applies to those students who have undertaken part of their formal education in English, and those whose major discipline at university is English.

Students intending to take regular university courses instructed in Japanese must possess level N1 or 1 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT), or the equivalent. Students intending to enrol in the Intensive Programme in Advanced Japanese are required to possess at least level N2 of the JLPT.

Student Status

1. Undergraduate Students:

Undergraduate students, who are admitted to the NUPACE programme to complete taught courses with the aim of earning credits, shall hold Special Undergraduate Student status.

2. Graduate Students:

(1) Graduate students, who are admitted to the programme to complete taught courses with the aim of earning credits, shall hold Special Graduate Student status.

(2) Graduate students who do not require credits, and who wish to be admitted to the programme to engage primarily in guided research, shall hold Special Research Student status. This status is applicable to students registered for both master's programmes and doctorates at their home universities. In principle, students enrolled in doctorates at the time of application will automatically be given "special research student" status.

Academic Programme

The NUPACE programme, in offering regular 'major' courses taught both in English and Japanese, is equally suited to the needs of those students with no previous Japanese language instruction, and those who have attained level N1 of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT).

1. Courses in the Student's 'Major'

Students are able to pursue their major field of study through established courses, courses designed especially for NUPACE students, or courses comprising the "Nagoya University Global 30 International Programmes" (see pp. 5-6). The core NUPACE curriculum is taught primarily in English, although students who demonstrate sufficient Japanese language ability (level N1 of the JLPT) may register for regular courses taught in Japanese.

2. Guided Independent Study (GIS)

In their second semester of study at Nagoya University, Special Undergraduate Students and Special Graduate Students can opt to take advantage of our Guided Independent Study (GIS) system. These students may, with the permission and co-operation of their academic advisors, pursue independent research in their major field of study for a limited number of credits.

3. Japanese Language Programme

Nagoya University offers a Japanese language programme rich in content and variety, including comprehensive courses tailored to the needs of exchange students (NUPACE Japanese language courses <8 levels>), integrated Japanese courses for advanced Japanese language learners, as well as more specialised courses, including business Japanese, academic Japanese, and kanji classes.

In addition, a limited number of courses taught in Japanese, and aimed at upper-intermediate and pre-advanced learners of Japanese, have been made available to those NUPACE students who have attained at least level N2 of the JLPT, or the equivalent.

4. Intensive Programme in Advanced Japanese

As of 2018, Nagoya University's International Language Centre has opened its Intensive Programme in Advanced Japanese (AJ) to a maximum of ten undergraduate NUPACE applicants majoring in Japanese or Japan Area Studies. This one-year programme is designed for students possessing at least level N2 of the JLPT, who wish to pursue an academic or professional career using the language. See p. 7 for further details.

Credits

The minimum coursework requirement for Special Undergraduate Students and Special Graduate Students is fifteen credits (equivalent to thirty ECTS) per semester or thirty credits (sixty ECTS) per year. Special Research Students are required to pursue research for a minimum of fifteen hours per week. At the end of their period of exchange, all NUPACE students having earned credits are presented with an official transcript of academic records specifying courses studied, evaluation of performance and credits awarded. The number of credits granted is determined by the academic regulations of Nagoya University and is based on the number of hours studied. Upon examining the academic transcript, the student's home institution may determine the appropriate number of credits to be granted at that institution. Prospective students are asked to note that the granting of credits for the purpose of earning a degree falls under the jurisdiction of the student's home institution.

NUPACE students earn two sets of grades in courses taken for credit: Grades based on Nagoya University's system, and their equivalent on the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS) scale. ECTS has gained broad recognition as an international grade evaluation standard that facilitates the transfer of credits and grades between different university systems across the globe.

Nagoya University Grading System		ECTS Equivalent Scale
S Excellent	(90-100)	A Excellent
A Very Good	(80-89)	B Very Good
B Good	(70-79)	C Good
C Satisfactory	(60-69)	D Satisfactory
F Fail	(0-59)	F Fail
W Withdrawal	–	Not Applicable

(Nagoya University does not adopt the grades E and Fx, as employed by the ECTS grading system)

Schools of Affiliation and Academic Advisor

All NUPACE students are affiliated to a School corresponding to their major area of study. In principle, a full-time faculty member whose field of specialisation is close to that of the student's 'major' will be assigned to each student as his/her academic advisor.

Overview of Academic Programmes

OVERVIEW OF ACADEMIC PROGRAMMES 2019-2020

With over 1,000 courses taught in English, (and many more in Japanese), students participating in NUPACE have a variety of study options open to them. Provided that they meet the academic and linguistic requirements of the classes in question, they may devise individual semester/year-based course loads, freely choosing units from 1) the Global 30 international programmes, 2) NUPACE academic programme, and 3) regular courses taught in Japanese.

1. GLOBAL 30 INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMMES

Nagoya University has opened eleven undergraduate and eleven graduate degree programmes taught entirely in English, known as the “Nagoya University Global 30 International Programmes”, or simply “G30 Programmes”. Courses comprising the G30 programmes are, in principle, open to exchange students, and a large number of NUPACE students are taking advantage of the opportunity to register for them.

NB. Irrespective of whether they wish to register for G30 courses, applicants to NUPACE should apply directly to the NUPACE Office, following procedures laid down in this prospectus and on the programme website, viewable at <http://nupace.iee.nagoya-u.ac.jp/en/>. G30 programme admission requirements and procedures do NOT apply to exchange students.

Orientation Session

E ntering Japan

International students intending to pursue studies in Japan must be in possession of a valid passport issued by their country of citizenship. Prior to embarking for Japan, they are also required to apply to the nearest Japanese diplomatic mission (embassy or consulate) for a “student” visa. In the case of NUPACE students, a “student” visa is usually issued after the embassy/consulate obtains the applicant’s “Certificate of Eligibility for Status and Residence”.

Nagoya University applies for these “Certificates of Eligibility” on behalf of prospective NUPACE students, and along with a letter of admission, sends them directly to the students or their home institutions. It is imperative that when applying for a “student visa”, students take their “Certificate of Eligibility”, passport, and letter of admission to the Japanese Embassy or Consulate. Students are also required to bring the “Certificate” with them when they enter Japan to submit to the immigration authorities at the airport.

NB.

1. Each country has different stipulations and procedures for the purpose of issuing passports and visas. It is the responsibility of the student to enquire at his or her local Japanese diplomatic mission which documents are required, and if necessary, to request them from Nagoya University.
2. Dual/multi-nationals in possession of Japanese nationality are not required to apply for a “student” visa. Students possessing Japanese nationality will be expected to enter Japan on their Japanese passports.

Student Column 1

majoring in Economics at Sun Yat-sen University, Lingnan (University) College, P. R. China.

Time flies. It has been over a year since I first arrived in Nagoya. Though I just joined NUPACE for half year, it was the most unforgettable time in my college life.

NUPACE is really a wonderful exchange programme where you are able to experience both academic study and daily life in Japan. Attending the courses and various activities of NUPACE helped me better understand the previously learnt knowledge of my own major and gave me new perspectives to think about questions from the viewpoint of Japan. Professors in class and teachers in the NUPACE Office were so kind in sharing their knowledge and experience that I really learnt a lot, not only about my own major but also Japanese society. Besides, NUPACE provided a very good living environment and scholarship to support NUPACE students. The dormitory was comfortable, convenient and students who live there are very warm-hearted and willing to help. There is also a partner system which is really helpful for adapting to Japanese life. Thus, I made a lot of friends here and I miss them so much.

Nagoya impressed me so much as well. It was not my first time to Japan, but I have never been to Nagoya before. Nagoya is in the centre of Japan so it is very easy for you to travel around Japan, and it is also a big city that reflects real Japan. I love the modern Nagoya station and ancient Netsuta Jingu, which left me with happy memories.

All in all, my words are too poor to show the merits of joining NUPACE. Therefore, I strongly recommend you to join NUPACE in person, and you will also have unforgettable moments in your life.

Student Column 2

Ma Tianchang,
graduate student majoring in Civil Engineering at Shenyang University of Technology,
P. R. China.

This was the first time for me to study abroad and before coming Japan I was quite excited to do research at Nagoya University. Compared to the past, the biggest change for me is that I have become calmer when facing trifles, more confident to face the future, and firmer in facing my heart. The half year spent in Japan is the most valuable treasure in my life.

The NUPACE programme assigned a supervisor for me; he introduced the research group and held a welcome party for me. All the students in the laboratory were Japanese, and I was worried whether it would be a little awkward because of the language barrier. But in fact, we introduced ourselves and played games together. Talking about Chinese food and Japanese manga, we completely forgot that we were from two different countries. Our lab regularly held seminars with other labs to do presentations. As I do not know much Japanese, the professor let the other students translate the presentations into English; it really moved and impressed me a lot.

Looking back on the six months in Japan, I have experienced a lot for the first time: the first time to cook for myself, the first time to live alone, and the first time to learn Japanese in English. This has become the most precious memory of my graduate life. From the excitement before going abroad, to the freshness when I just arrived in Japan, to the gradual familiarisation, and then the reluctance to leave. These may be just trivial things, but they are all an indispensable part of my memories.

Finally, I would like to thank the NUPACE programme for providing me with such an opportunity to study in Japan. Thank you very much!

Student Column 3

Ah Lam Yang,
graduate student majoring in Japanese Literature and Culture at Korea University, R. O. Korea.

Hello! I'm Ah Lam Yang. I came to Nagoya University as a doctoral exchange student from Korea University (2018.4-2018.8). The period as an exchange student in Nagoya was very hard, but actually, it proved a rewarding time in my life. For example, in order to enrol in classes taught in Japanese, I had to ask for permission from all of the professors. I did not know anything about this process, so I asked the NUPACE staff. (Thank you for your help.) I took two English classes and four Japanese classes. Every week, I had difficulties with essays, but I think that it became a meaningful semester because I learnt more about Japanese research methods, papers, and presentations. As a research student, it was also helpful to get materials at Nagoya University Library. Also, Nagoya University's laboratories keep lights on all night. When I saw this, it felt the students' ardor for study. Welcome to Nagoya University! Please show me you passion!!!

I have now returned to finish my studies in the UK. I often find myself fondly reminiscing over the great memories made last year in Japan. ありがとうございます, NUPACE.

The scholarship is open to students who at the time of application and admission to Nagoya University are enrolled in full-time courses of study at institutions of higher education outside of Japan, and who meet the following conditions:

- 1) Applicants must possess the nationality of a country having diplomatic relations with Japan, including Taiwan and the Palestinian Territories.

Student Column 4

Annisa Maulia Fahmi,
majoring in International Relations at Gadjah Mada University, Indonesia.

Adjusting to my life as a NUPACE student when I first arrived in Japan in April 2018 was easy. Of course there were language barriers as I hardly understand Japanese, cultural differences and, not to mention, I knew no one, but magically those hurdles didn't matter at all. Cherry blossoms were blooming, the food was great, everyone was kind and accommodative, I made friends eventually; thus I felt at home.

From the beginning, I wanted both a challenging and rewarding academic life from my exchange experience and NUPACE was the right choice. NUPACE offers over 1000 courses taught in English both at the undergraduate and graduate level. I was in the final year of my undergraduate programme when I became a NUPACE student, and I was able to take the courses from the graduate programme. I liked how the professors taught us. The courses were interactive, with the professors guiding insightful class discussions. Nagoya University environment also very conducive to academic engagement, as lots of special lectures, seminars, and on-campus discussions were held. My favorite was the Guest Speaking Event held by the Nagoya University HeforShe Club at Craig's Café.

Another great thing about my exchange experience was that I experienced both multicultural ambiance and authentic Japanese culture. I met and made friends with people from around the world with different backgrounds and cultures. In International Ohmeikan I had to live along with other Japanese and NUPACE students. They were so kind and friendly, and we even cooked okonomiyaki and takoyaki together. Through NUPACE I came across an abundance of opportunities. I joined cultural programmes, volunteered for a junior high school event, visited awesome places, joined the Nagoya University Festival, ate delicious food, played table tennis at the dorm, and the list goes on.

At first I knew no one. Near the end of my exchange period, I had not only genuine friendship with people I met at Nagoya University, but also with two host families. In the end, I had gotten myself invaluable experiences and precious memories through NUPACE. As I said before, adjusting to my life when I arrived in Japan was easy; but saying goodbye when I had to leave was not.

Student Life

1. Housing

Nagoya University operates two mixed Japanese/international student dormitories, and a number of dormitories used exclusively by international students. All NUPACE students are generally accommodated in International Residence – Daiko (a twenty-minute subway ride), International Residence – Higashiyama (on-campus), International Ohmeikan, or International Residence – Yamate (both a ten-minute walk from Higashiyama campus). In International Residence – Daiko and International Ohmeikan, each individual study/bedroom is fully furnished and installed with a unit bathroom, with kitchens being shared. International Residence – Higashiyama provides fully furnished study/bedrooms, which include a kitchenette and unit bathroom. Yamate comprises a combination of both styles.

➔ <http://nupace.iee.nagoya-u.ac.jp/en/life/accommo.html>

2. Health Care

All NUPACE students are required to join the Japan National Health Insurance (JNHI) programme. For a monthly fee of approximately ¥1,700, JNHI policyholders are entitled to a 70% discount on most medical and dental fees incurred. NUPACE appreciates that many incoming students are covered by private/home university insurance schemes. However, in consideration of the fact that, 1) medical expenses in Japan are relatively high, 2) Japanese medical facilities do not accept foreign insurance policies in lieu of payment and, 3) students will, therefore, have to wait a minimum of two months to be reimbursed by their home insurance policies, NUPACE requires Japan National Health Insurance subscription from all students.

➔ <http://www.city.nagoya.jp/en/page/0000013894.html>

Nagoya University houses a Health Administration Office at which emergency treatment for illness and injury is performed free of charge. The Office additionally serves to refer students to hospitals, where deemed necessary.

3. Life, Accident and Personal Liability Insurance Schemes

The Nagoya University Co-operative offers life insurance and personal liability insurance options at extremely competitive rates. All NUPACE students are required to take out personal liability insurance during their exchange at Nagoya University at the reasonable cost of ¥1,500 per year.

4. Counselling

All schools at Nagoya University house international student advising or exchange facilities at which international students may consult on matters concerning their studies and daily life in Japan. In addition, the Department of Advising and Counselling Services of the International Education and Exchange Centre possesses expertise in supporting international students with regard to mental health and disability issues. Complementary to services provided by these professionals, the faculty and staff of NUPACE endeavour to render the stay of overseas students a more comfortable and fulfilling one by offering additional advising and resource services in areas including administrative procedures, academic issues, scholarships, accommodation, immigration and residence procedures, daily life, and general health.

5. Computer Access

All Nagoya University students, including NUPACE students, have access to computers running on the Microsoft Windows operating system, located on campus. The university computer labs do not offer a twenty-four hour service, however, and students in possession of their own laptops are strongly recommended to bring these to Japan. Indeed, as the International Education and Exchange Centre is a completely “wireless zone”, NUPACE students with laptops may freely use designated sections of this building for Internet access and for their studies. Access to the building is guaranteed on any day between 08:00 until 20:00.

Internet services are provided free-of-charge in university accommodation. Depending on the dormitory in question, access is available either in individual rooms or in wireless zones.

6. Tutors (Buddy System)

All NUPACE students are eligible to receive the services of a tutor, a fellow student majoring in a similar field of study. Tutoring assistance is available for fifteen to twenty-five hours per semester, and tutors’ responsibilities may include, 1) assistance with university paperwork and official procedures after arrival, 2) advice on the use of university facilities related to academic studies, 3) assistance and guidance with regard to lectures, research, experiments, course preparation, and reports, 4) Japanese language and conversation support, and 5) the introduction of Japanese culture and customs.

7. Extracurricular Activities

Nagoya University has a wide range of cultural and sports clubs, officially boasting fifty-three of the former and forty-three of the latter, with a total membership of 3,500 students. These provide international and Japanese students with an excellent opportunity to mix, and thus participate in a cross-cultural learning experience.

8. Cross-cultural Exchange Groups

There is a host of volunteer groups involved with international students both amongst the campus community and outside. These depend for their existence on the co-operation of each and every international student, and greatly contribute to enriching student and community life. Information on these groups will be made available at the general orientation for NUPACE students.

9. Exchange Activities outside Nagoya

During the spring, summer and winter vacations, various associations host home-visits or camping activities. If taken advantage of properly, these present an excellent opportunity to deepen one's knowledge of Japan at comparatively little cost. Home-visit possibilities include places as far afield as Hokkaido and Kyushu.

10. Part-time Work

International students intending to engage in remunerative activities in Japan should declare that they wish to work part-time at the port of entry and receive a stamp of permission on their Residence Card at this time (application forms are available at major airports and also downloadable from the Ministry of Justice at <http://www.moj.go.jp/ONLINE/IMMIGRATION/16-8.html> <Japanese page>). Where permission is granted, students may work for a maximum of twenty-eight hours per week during the semester, and up to eight hours per day during long vacations.

11. Climate & Clothes

The climate in Nagoya is distinguished by its humidity in summer and marked seasonal changes. In general, autumn is dry, cool, and pleasant. Winter (December to February) can prove cold with minimum temperatures of -5°C (23°F), highs of 9°C (48°F), piercing winds and the occasional snowfall. Spring (March to May) is the time of cherry blossoms and new beginnings, including the Japanese academic and fiscal years. Summer, heralded by the 'rainy season' in June, is extremely hot and muggy with temperatures peaking at around 38°C (100°F) in August. Temperatures start to drop in mid-September and around this time the Japanese archipelago experiences the 'typhoon season'.

Students should bear these seasonal changes in mind when choosing what clothes to bring to Japan. They are also advised that it may prove challenging to find larger than average clothes and shoe sizes.

NUPACE Office

Tsutomu Nomizu

I have served as academic coordinator of NUPACE since 1996. I also belong to the Graduate School of Engineering where my major is instrumental analytical chemistry. NUPACE provides its participants with the flexibility to study in a variety of academic fields and I hope to assist you to experience a fruitful exchange. I recommend you to apply for this fascinating study experience in Nagoya, Japan.

Claudia Ishikawa

Associate professor and co-ordinator of NUPACE. I principally involve myself in academic affairs, international liaison, and PR, dealing with issues related to admission policy, academic advising, exchange agreements, risk control, and publicity. I am also responsible for teaching 'Immigration in Japan – Law, Policy, and Society'. My research interests lie in comparative immigration law and the legal status of aliens. Actually, by having experienced life as a student and foreigner in Japan, I share at least two traits with all NUPACE participants. Needless to say, I hope to be able to use my own experiences to help you navigate an academic and social life that can prove challenging, but most of all, rewarding.

Keiko Kusumoto

After joining NUPACE in July 2015, I have been involved in admissions, student affairs, as well as student advising. After working for a Japanese company, where I dealt with overseas customers, sometimes visiting them in their premises, I spent three years abroad, working as a Japanese Language Teacher in China. This gave me the experience of living in a foreign country and, also, interacting with people from different backgrounds. I am sure the knowledge gained in those two jobs will prove valuable assets for my position here at Nagoya University.

My areas of interest are Japanese language education and intercultural communication, more specifically, the development of intercultural competence in higher education. Your experiences in Japan are going to be treasures that will impact your life. I will make my best effort to be of help during your search for such treasures.

Chiaki Kawanaka

Administrative assistant, dealing mainly with enquiries from students of partner universities. What is the purpose of your study abroad? If you search on the Internet, everything and everywhere can be found, and you can get in touch with the entire world in a second. But, there is more to it than that. Why don't you come and feel NUPACE, Nagoya, and Japan! This one semester/one year experience may impact your way of thinking.

Rie Ashiya

Administrative assistant of NUPACE, providing general support for NUPACE students and assisting tutor services. I enjoy helping international students make the most their campus life and extracurricular activities, as I also had wholehearted support when I had an opportunity to study abroad. We have received valuable feedback from alumni, many of whom were able to share their interests with students from all over the world, and build life-long friendships during their stay at Nagoya University. I hope you, too, come to be a part of NUPACE!

Student Exchange Division

Atsuko Hisada

Administrative staff of the Student Exchange Section, working closely with NUPACE. This section serves international exchange students, both inbound and outbound, and duties include the administration of scholarship programmes managed by JASSO and other related organisations.

Once you start thinking about study abroad, it is natural to have feelings, not only of expectation and curiosity, but also anxiety. This might be momentarily frustrating, but from my experience, I can say that study abroad will surely turn out to be a crucial step for your entire life! I hope that you will find yourself surprisingly flexible and, of course, developed academically by the NUPACE programme!

Shizue Okajima

Administrative staff member of the Student Exchange Division. I deal mainly with the NUPACE Online Course Manager (OCM). I have lived in Nagoya since I was born, and can vouch that Nagoya is a very comfortable place to live in and, of course, study! If you join NUPACE then, in addition to the common Japanese culture, you will be able to experience the unique Nagoya culture and language. Why don't you come to Nagoya and join the NUPACE programme?!!

Nagisa Omori

Administrative assistant of the Student Exchange Division, dealing mainly with student admission. Since you have opened this prospectus, I assume that you are at a turning point in your life. Why don't you jump into a new life abroad? The experience of studying abroad offers irreplaceable benefits. As a NUPACE staff member, I'd like to support your campus life at Nagoya University, and also hope that you enjoy your life in this attractive city, Nagoya!

NAGOYA and AICHI – Hot & Cool

Economic Power House and Mono-zukuri Heartland

Aichi Prefecture, of which Nagoya is the prefectural capital, is home to some of the world's leading next-generation automotive, aerospace, and environment and energy industries. With its preeminent manufacturing base, Aichi ranks second, after Tokyo, in having the highest average income per capita amongst Japan's forty-seven prefectures and, according to JETRO, its gross production surpasses that of Denmark.

On the other hand, the comparatively low price of commodities makes Nagoya an appealing city to live in, and this may account for the prefecture's continuing population growth.

A vibrant economy, colourful history, comfortable living environment, and sophisticated transportation network attract people to this region of Japan, both nation- and world-wide.

A Subculture Mecca

Historical Superheroes Today

Nagoya Omotenashi Bushotai, one of the city's live attractions, comprises a group of six historical warlords, including Oda Nobunaga, Toyotomi Hideyoshi, and Tokugawa Ieyasu, who all hail from this region. You can witness their heroics at samurai performances around Nagoya Castle.

In the Osu area of Nagoya, there are a number of shops and restaurants that cater to otaku culture. Osu has an open ambience for cultural diversity regardless of age, gender, or nationality. Come and enjoy the annually held World Cosplay Summit, where you can encounter approximately 15,000 participants walking in parade.

Culinary Delights of Nagoya

Hitsumabushi

Aichi Prefecture is one of Japan's top eel farming regions, and its famed eel delicacy, hitsumabushi has its origins at the end of Meiji Era. Chopped grilled eel is served with sweet soy sauce on top of cooked rice. Relish the different tastes of hitsumabushi with condiments such as wasabi, seaweed, mitsuba (Japanese parsley), dashi soup, etc.

Miso Oden

Miso is a traditional Japanese paste produced by fermenting rice and soybeans. Oden is a Japanese-style hot pot dish, which contains a variety of ingredients, such as daikon radish, boiled eggs, deep fried tofu, etc. Try tasting the combination.

Sake

In Aichi Prefecture, there are forty-two historical sake breweries, which produce excellent Sake. You can visit sake cellars for a tasting session.

Appendix 1 – Exchange Partner Institutions

Applicants to NUPACE must be enrolled in universities having concluded academic exchange agreements with Nagoya University at either the inter-university or inter-school level. Students enrolled in departments having concluded an inter-school/faculty agreement will be affiliated to the respective partner school at Nagoya University.

As of December 2018, Nagoya University has concluded a total of 449 agreements, including student exchange memoranda (tuition waiver agreements) with 234 universities, departments and research institutes, as denoted by asterisks (*) below.

Cover: The City of Nagoya

Nagoya, located in the heart of Japan, has played a central role in the formation of this nation's modern history, and Nagoya Castle, originally built by Tokugawa Ieyasu, serves as the city's landmark.

In contemporary Japan, this vibrant metropolis occupies an important political and economical position. Nagoya constitutes the nerve centre of the Chubu Industrial Zone, an amalgamation of both traditional and modern enterprises, notable amongst which are the automobile, aviation, and ceramics industries. Moreover, the city, with a population of 2.3 million, offers all the conveniences of any large urban centre, and is an exciting place to live, work and study.
